

This week, we have been learning to read and spell words ending with -er and -est.

Level 5

-er

-er can be added to the end of a describing word (adjective). When -er is added as a word ending, the word becomes 'more' than it was.

For example:

quick becomes quicker.

-est

-est can also be added to the end of a describing word. When -est is added as a word ending, the word becomes the 'most' it can be.

For example:

quick becomes quickest.

Formation

Follow the arrows and finish at the dots.

Sentence Reading Activity

Read the sentences below. Colour the -er and -est words in different colours.

Is Sam the loudest in her class?

The red spray smells fresher than the green one.

Kit was the quickest to sell his oldest toys at the car boot sale!

Grammar

This week, we have been learning about using capital letters for names and 'I'.

Picture

Kit reminds us when and where to use a capital letter.

Action

Stretch up tall to make a big capital 'K' shape.

- We already know that capital letters are used at the start of sentences.
- Capital letters are also needed at the beginning of some words, such as the names of places and the names of people.
- Capital I is used instead of your name when writing about yourself.

Activity

Read the words below. Circle the words that need a capital letter, then choose one to write within a sentence.

clap

sam

jumper

mix

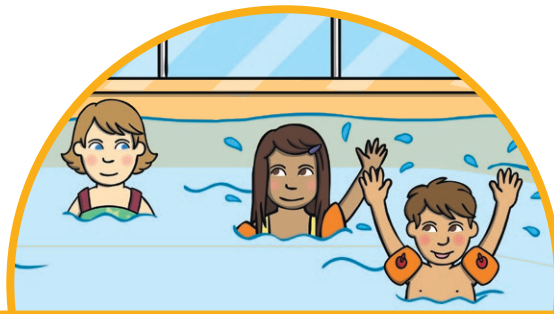

ben

Home Learning Challenge

Read the words and sentences. Choose one word to write in each sentence. Each word can only be used once.

Make sure each sentence makes sense!
