

Week 1: Capital Letters (Due Tuesday 22nd September)

Capital letters are used at the start of a sentence or for proper nouns (names)

This text is missing some capital letters. Can you re-write the text and make sure that they are included.

the legend of podkin one-ear, written by kieran larwood, follows a young, lazy rabbit prince whose peaceful life is shattered when his home is invaded by the gorm—a terrifying tribe of iron-clad, corrupted rabbits. forced to flee with his siblings (paz and pook) and a legendary magic dagger named starclaw, podkin must step up, outwit ruthless enemies, and survive in the dangerous wilderness. it is a thrilling, fantasy journey about an unlikely hero growing into a legendary warrior, told through the frame of an old bard recounting the tale to a young audience.

Week 2: Speech Punctuation (Due Tuesday 29th September)

These sentences all contain speech but have no inverted commas (speech marks). Add the inverted commas in the correct place.

1. My mother said, please remember to buy some fresh bread on your way home.
2. I cannot believe, groaned Sam, we missed the train by just two minutes.
3. Turn left at the next traffic light and park near the library, instructed the driver.
4. Sarah asked, why did you leave the back door open all night.
5. The weather forecast, announced the presenter, predicts heavy rain for the entire weekend.
6. Make sure you drink plenty of water during your long run, advised the doctor.
7. Alex cheered, I finally finished reading the final chapter of my book.
8. Do not touch the stove, cautioned the teacher, while it is still hot.
9. Where did you put the keys to the garage? shouted Mark from the hallway.
10. Maya declared excitedly, we are going to visit the new art museum tomorrow morning.

Week 3: Prefixes (Due Tuesday 6th October)

Prefixes are a group of letters added to a root word that change its meaning.

Task 1: Match the prefix to the root word to build a real word

Prefix	Root word
Un -	national
Re -	understand
Dis -	happy
Pre -	possible
Mis -	marine
Sub -	build
Inter -	connect
Im -	view

Task 2: Write some sentences using a prefix + root word.

Aim for 5 sentences.

e.g., The small dog was very unhappy because he couldn't dig in the garden.

Week 4: Contractions (Due Tuesday 13th October)

An apostrophe can be used when two words are shortened into one. This is called a contraction. The apostrophe replaces the missing letters.

E.g., I + am = I'm

Task 1: Match the word pair to the contraction

Word pair	Contraction
Do not	They're
She is	You'll
They are	Don't
It is	I've
I have	She's
You will	It's

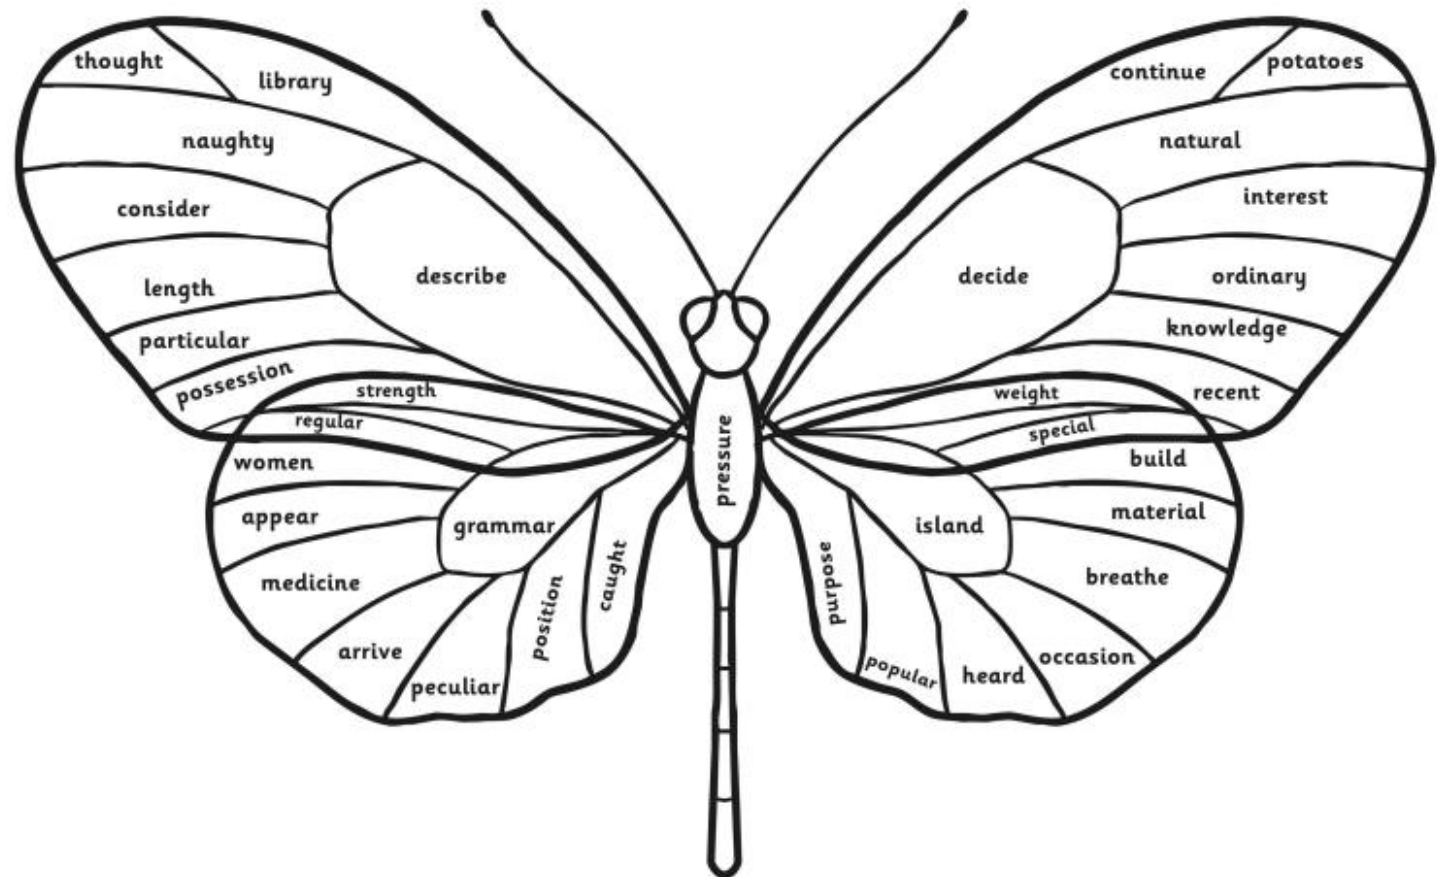

Task 2: Rewrite each sentence, put the apostrophe in the correct spot

1. I cant find my school bag anywhere.
2. We shouldnt stay out too late tonight.
3. Whats your favorite color?
4. He wasnt feeling very well this morning.

Week 5: Word Class (Due Tuesday 20th October)

Colour the picture using the key at the bottom of the page

- Verbs are action words
- Nouns are people, places, things or ideas
- Adjectives describe a noun

verbs = yellow

nouns = blue

adjectives = purple